

a "gambling-for-good" evening of giving back

Greetings,

As we approach our much-anticipated annual fundraising gala, CATsino Royale, we are excited to invite esteemed businesses like yours to join us in making this event a resounding success.

The Casino Royale gala is a "gambling for good" celebration of FUNdraising and philanthropy, scheduled for Saturday, November 4. At Good Mews Animal Foundation, we are devoted to finding good homes for good kitties, where we serve as a safe haven home for cats and kittens while they await their forever homes. This gala serves as a significant funding source, enabling us to continue our essential mission and extend our reach to even more feline friends, and those who need us most in the community.

We admire businesses that share our commitment to community and compassion, and we believe that your involvement could contribute greatly to the triumph of our event. The funds raised from our silent auction, a highlight of the evening, will play a pivotal role in us continuing our crucial work.

We kindly request your consideration of donating an item, service, or experience to our silent auction. Your generosity will not only assist us in raising essential funds but also serve as a testament to your dedication to making a positive impact in our community.

If your business is willing to support our cause, please let us know the details of the donation you intend to provide, including its estimated value, any restrictions, and how we can best coordinate the acquisition. Whether it's a unique product, an exclusive service, or an extraordinary experience, your contribution will undoubtedly enhance our gala's appeal and help us achieve our fundraising goals.

To discuss your participation, address any inquiries, or explore additional ways to engage with our organization, please feel free to reach out to us directly. You can find more information about our organization and the CATsino Royale Gala on our website at: www.goodmews.org/auction

Thank you for considering our request and for your commitment to making a difference in the lives of animals and our community. Your partnership truly means the world to us, and we eagerly look forward to the prospect of working together to create an unforgettable CATsino Royale gala.

Warmest regards,

Elizabeth Finch & Carrie Giglio
